In Cabo, the living's luxe

Cabo San Lucas, Mexico, has a new luxury resort where every room has an ocean view and each guest is assigned a personal assistant. Capella Pedregal resort and spa, the sixth property in the Capella Hotels & Resorts brand, sits on 24 beachfront acres and is reached by way of a torch-lighted, 1,000-foot private tunnel that connects it to downtown Cabo San Lucas. Each of the 66 guest rooms includes a private plunge pool with infinity edges. Rooms range from 600 square feet to the 4,000-square-foot Presidential Suite. Steam, sauna and ice rooms are available at the Auriga Spa, which also offers outdoor treatments. Introductory packages begin at $475 a night and include a resort credit of $100 and up, depending on room type. For more information, visit www.capellapedregal.com.
