Capella Hotels & Resorts Announces the new Capella Pedregal community in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico

For the first time anywhere in the world, home owners can enjoy the use of a 61-foot luxury yacht with their purchase of a fractional interest in a villa! Where? In Cabo San Lucas, Mexico at the new Capella Pedregal community. Twenty-four acres of prime, mountaintop real estate, perched high above the confluence of the Pacific Ocean with the Sea of Cortez, are being developed as an extension to the ultra-luxury villas already on-site. This new community, which opens in 2007, will consist of shared ownership and full-ownership residences and the first of ex-Ritz Carlton guru Horst Schulze's new Capella Hotels & Resorts properties. Owners of both shared (fractional) and full-ownership villas will get a bonus: use of a fleet of luxury yachts and membership in the Capella Yacht Club.
